Who are we?

The Translating-mirror is an online translating business that specialises in Italian, Spanish, Greek, German, Dutch, Swedish, Scandinavian and French.

Should you require translations in other languages, we can accommodate them accordingly.

Expertise/Background

The Translating-mirror is a company with established expertise on the medical, scientific and educational/academic sectors.

Our translators hold qualifications such as BA (Hons) in English Language Studies and German, TEFL Certificate (Teaching English as a Foreign Language), MA in Applied Linguistics and a BA (Hons) in Biomedical Sciences. They are well acquainted with the different translation needs of each sector and will provide a reliable and trustworthy service to our customers.

How can we help the needs of your business?

The Translating-mirror concentrates on Medical, Scientific and Educational/Academic areas but can also provide translations for other areas.

The Translating-mirror wishes to help different providers such as Universities, Schools, Local Councils/Authorities, University Students, Graduates and International Companies.

Our translation services will also extend to Government Departments, Police Liaison, Court Senates, Advertising/Employment Agencies and Community/Charitable Projects.

The Translating-mirror can help your business save money by:

- Introducing special rates for bulk translation projects
- By rewarding customer loyalty with an ongoing 10% off discount every time they use The Translating-mirror
- By providing a special price to providers such as Universities, Schools, Local Authorities and other local organisations that use our company frequently.

Overall, it will save you time and money by choosing The Translating-mirror for the translating needs of your company.
